DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1, 2, 3, 7, 9-15 and 23-29, drawn to a PTH2 receptor ligand.
- II. Claims 4, 5, 6, 8, 16-22 and 30-47, drawn to a method of treatment by administering a PTH2 receptor ligand.

Election/Restriction

Furthermore, a second restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372 as follows:

When applicant elects from Inventions I or II (above), one PTH2 receptor ligand must also be selected to be considered responsive:

Applicant may specify the sequence/analogue by either:

Art Unit: 1647

Election/Restriction

Furthermore, a third restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372 as follows:

If Applicant elects from Invention II (above), one medical disorder must also be selected to be considered responsive:

Choose one:

- A) abnormal CNS functions,
- B) abnormal pancreatic functions,
- C) divergence from normal mineral metabolism and homeostasis,
- D) male infertility,
- E) abnormal blood pressure, or
- F) a hypothalamic disease.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

The first claimed invention lacks a special technical feature because it fails to distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art (e.g., Usdin, T., 1995, J. Biol. Chem. 138(2): 831-834). The prior art discloses a PTH2 receptor ligand that is not PTH (see [D-Trp<sup>12</sup>]bPTH(7-34) in Figure 4); this meets the limitations of the "PTH analogue" recited in the first claimed invention. Therefore, none of the other claimed inventions can share a special technical feature with the first claimed invention.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the PTH2 receptor ligand can be used to generate antibodies.

Furthermore, each PTH2 receptor analogue is patentably distinct from every other because each has a different putative function, a different structure, and requires completely different search terms, starting points and strategies.

Each medical disorder is independent and distinct, each from the other, because the methods for their diagnosis are practiced with materially different process steps for materially different purposes and each disorder listed requires a non-coextensive search because of different underlying etiologies, different diagnostic tests and protocols, different patients, different medical personnel and different treatment protocols and goals.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, separate search requirements, and different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the inventions to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 C.F.R. 1.143)

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(i).

Art Unit: 1647
